“From the viewpoint of a tween”, this “cute, well-done” West 70s boutique with an East 70s sidekick is “divine”, in fact, you “need go no further for trendy wear”; the owner holds frequent focus groups with neighborhood kids to make sure she’s stocking the “right” stuff, from Seven jeans and Lemon T-shirts to Sister Sam skirts and Monkey Wear party dresses, to piles of jewelry and accessories – so “if you’re 10–13 years old”, “you automatically love everything.”
